					1 That which is predestined will be accomplished, but those who delay the dates of progress are condemned to regress.	2 In fact, the human being is the highest manifestation of the Cosmos.
3 The Mind of the Cosmos is omnipresent. In all of Space Its law is manifested.	4 Life is transmuted by spirit and by will!	5 Note that fear and hesitation are blocks for the spirit.	6 The illusion of life is generated only by thought that limits the cosmic expressions.	7 The power of union is affirmed as the cosmic lever, and the human cannot be isolated.	8 The spirit that does not know the call does not utilize the forces manifested from the Infinite.	9 Each one must find the key for the Teaching in their heart.
10 The Cosmos proclaims that life pulses in all atoms and puts into movement the manifestations of evolution.	11 The one who seeks for the Truth will discover the beauty of the infinite existence.	12 Dissatisfaction and anguish are often an answer to the call from Space.	13 Humanity violates the law of cooperation and is expiating for this transgression.	14 The more powerful lever of the Cosmos and the more sacred of it, is the heart.	15 Where speech is poor the voice of the heart affirms silence.	16 The Cosmos in its silence manifests the language of the heart and the cosmic voice can be heard.
17 The sacred union is the foundation of all being.	18 Demonstrate comprehension for the beauty of the changes of existence.	19 With the spirit we can build more than with the hands.	20 The communion of spirit with spirit is revealed with as an interlacing of subtler energies.	21 Immutable is the law manifested by the Cosmos.	22 Aspire to find comprehension that the end is the beginning. In this way we reach the Infinite.	23 The link that binds the human to the Cosmos is indestructible.
24 The subtler and more pure is invisible.	25 The fire is that which transmutes energy.	26 The chalice of the heart contains everything.	27 The clarity of the cosmic law reveals to the human being the beauty of the world.	28 The human being brings inside of itself all the manifestations of the cosmos.
